Cricket South Africa (CSA), in a media release on Sunday, saluted Hashim Amla for his double whammy – reaching South Africa’s highest ever Test score, and becoming the first to make a triple century at this level for the country.

“Hashim’s contribution to South Africa cricket has gone far beyond the runs he has put on the scoreboard. He remains a wonderful role model to our youth with the humility and dignity he displays on the field, his totally professional and focused approach on the field and the manner in which he conducts himself both on and off the field.”

KHANYISILE MOKELE: BRIDGING THE GAP

What impressed Khanyisile Mokele the most as a child was hearing that her uncle had designed and built a bridge over a highway. It also set the stage for her ambitions. Today this petite 18-year-old girl wants to be a civil engineer.

“I want to design my own bridge!” she states emphatically. “Bridges bring the world closer.” She grew up in a family that sees education as the recipe for success. With her parents’ support and encouragement, she has always been motivated to achieve good results. Mathematics and Physical Sciences are no challenge for Khanyisile. While she may have a natural ability in these subjects, she also works hard at them, taking afternoon and Saturday classes to ensure she succeeds.

Khanyisile has applied to study Civil Engineering at the University of Technology in Tshwane and has been accepted pending her final results this year.
