QUESTION 5 : CASE STUDY/ ATTRACTIONS

A soccer fan visits Cape Town

Joe Radebe, a migrant worker from Limpopo works for a company in Johannesburg.

He is a staunch supporter of Orlando Pirates F.C.

He is so keen on soccer that he won't eat if his team loses a game. Because of his loyalty the club offered him a weekend tour package to any South African destination .He has decided to go to Cape Town.

He chose this city because he has read a lot about it and has also never been to the sea before! The tour package included accommodation, entrance fees to places of interest, a hired car and the opportunity of seeing his team playing one of the Cape teams. He consulted a travel agent who made suggestions about the attractions he could visit. He decided to visit Robben Island, Table Mountain and the Victoria and Alfred (V&A) Waterfront. A tour guide was organized to take him to all these attractions.

He arrived at the airport an hour before the departure time. This was his first experience of flying and fortunately the flight was non-stop. On his arrival he was transferred to his hotel by a shuttle bus service. He was very excited to find out that his hotel was close to the V&A Waterfront. He collected his hired car and met the tour guide and then drove to Table Mountain where he rode on the cable car to the top of the mountain. He later took a boat ride to the famous Robben Island. The tour of the island was a very emotional experience for him.

After watching his team play and beating Santos at the Athlone Stadium he boarded the plane back to Johannesburg. Even today he is still telling everybody about his trip. He promises to support his team Orlando Pirates for the rest of his life, As the slogan goes "Once a pirate always a pirate."
