ANC on its way down and taking South Africa with it - MK council

news24 Tshidi Madia

SHARE

- A group of ANC MK veterans known as the MK council expressed dismay at the state of the organisation, saying it was on a downward spiral.
- The MK council says while it supports Ramaphosa's letter on corruption and calls for implicated parties to step aside, there's barely been any action in that regard.
- It also says it has no confidence in Tony Yegeni's capabilities as chair of the subcommittee on peace and security.
