SECTION B - QUESTION 6 (14 Marks)

Nidhi's story: the impact of grief on my mental health

I struggled with depression after I faced the loss of a loved one in my life. I used to wake up with an empty feeling in me. The pain only increased with each small realisation – I would never get to see her, I would never get a call from her again, I can never share any news with her anymore.

I could only focus on what I did not have. The pain came in waves. I was not sad all the time, but the pain would just hit me out of nowhere. I did not choose the time I would feel sad. I had no control over my emotions. Crying took up my whole time. I used to think of all the plans I had for myself and how this person would be in my future. Thinking about the future was painful since she was not in it. I felt like there was no point in seeking help because it wouldn't bring this person back.
