Paper 2

MEMO

	Refer to paragraph 1
1.1 L3	The name is ironic as there is no lake at the camp, and nothing around them is green. Everything is dry and barren. It is a wasteland.	(2)
1.2	Selfish, uncaring, cruel. The warden will not let the children use the shade during very hot days, he wants to keep it for his own comfort.	(2)
	Refer to paragraph 2
1.3.1	95 degrees	(1)
1.3.2	35 degrees.	(1)
	Refer to paragraph 4
1.4.1	C Yellow-spotted lizard	(1)
1.4.2	“...you don’t want to be bitten by a yellow-spotted lizard.” “That’s the worst thing that can happen to you.” “You will die a slow and painful death.” “There is nothing anyone can do to you anymore.”	(2)
	Refer to paragraph 5
1.5.1	A bad child/a child who exhibits criminal behaviour.	(1)
1.5.2	They dug big holes in the hot sun every day.	(1)
1.5.3	They hope to rehabilitate the boys/they hope the boys will change or become better.	(2)
	Refer to paragraph 7 and 9
1.5.4	MD – No. There’s no purpose to just digging holes all day. The children won’t really learn from their mistakes. This is a rather ineffective form of rehabilitation.	(3)

	Yes - The digging of holes in the heat is enough of a punishment/torture that the children will never want to be sent to Camo Green Lake every again and so will not do anything bad.
1.6	Stanley Yelnats.	(1)
1.7	MD. A good, dedicated son - he promised to write to his mother often, fairly pitiful - he only had a toothbrush and toothpaste. Lonely and imaginative - he played with stuffed animals, pretending they were at a fun summer camp Hopeful - he thinks he may make friends at the camp and at least he will be able to swim in the lake.	(4)
	Refer to paragraph 10
1.8	He was overweight.	(1)
1.9	MD. Embarrassed, angry, upset, mortified (1). The teacher is making an example of me for being too fat/thin, at a time when teenagers are already self-conscious the teacher is highlighting a possible insecurity of mine. (anything logical) (2)	(3)
	Refer to paragraph 12
1.10	MD. He could have attacked the teacher, vandalised her classroom or car for embarrassing him like she did. Anything logical	(2)
1.11	He stole a pig from a one-legged Gypsy and she cursed him and his descendants.	(1)

The below questions are based on Text B

1.12	Rehabilitation.	(1)
1.13	Changing the child's focus to being on having a positive attitude could allow the child to change their goals/make positive changes a priority in their lives. If a child's focus changes, their actions will change.	(1)

The below question is based on Text A and Text B

1.14	Text A relates to a boy who has been arrested for doing something criminal and has been sent to a camp to help him become a better person. Text B shows a group of children who are in a rehabilitation facility, the purpose of which is also to help the children change into better versions of themselves. The link is that both the camp from Text A and the rehab facility from Text B both aim to help troubled children become better.	(2)
